The best spa destinations are in sight: if you're planning a relaxing getaway in 2020, we've got you covered with this guide.

Kokomo Private Island Fiji

Who goes: Reclusive honeymooners, sea-sports enthusiasts, crazy rich Asians, fancy Australians. Oh, and a Victoria's Secret supermodel or two.

Why: Treatments at the Yaukuve Spa Sanctuary, such as the Pacific Mastery Massage, are just an added bonus—everything here promotes communion with nature.

Food: Dock-to-sushi bar—the daily catch usually includes tuna, red snapper, or wahoo; vegetables are grown on the property.

Setting: Kokomo is surrounded by its own stunning coral formations, ideal for snorkeling. For divers and fishermen, the Great Astrolabe Reef—one of the most pristine in the world—is minutes away by boat.

Rooms: With just 21 villas and 5 luxury residences—each with its own pool—this is as close as it gets to having your own island.

Standout feature: Marine biologists tend to a garden of heat-resistant corals that help repopulate reef areas affected by global warming.

Don't go if: Flying is not your thing. Fiji is not exactly around the corner, and the hop from the mainland is by private seaplane or helicopter.
