

Easy living

Treat your family to a 'safecation' with these secluded island buyouts. Just don't forget the sun-cream...

MOZAMBIQUE

Step onto the soft, white powdery sands of Medjumbe Island and cast your coronavirus cares away.

You can forget the crowds because Medjumbe Island, located off the coast of Mozambique in the sparkling Indian Ocean, is just one kilometre long and 300m wide.

Settle into the 12 luxe beach and pool villas that can accommodate up to 24 of your family and friends.

The buyout package includes daily breakfast, lunch and dinner, one Dining by Design experience, and an excursion to nearby Quissanga Island with a BBQ or picnic. There's also the opportunity to embark on fishing, scuba or snorkelling adventures.

The Anantara Medjumbe Island Resort Private Island Package includes return air transfers from Pemba International Airport. Prices start from US$19,280 per night for a minimum three-night stay and the offer runs until December 31, 2021.

SEYCHELLES

Gather together up to 20 family members and close friends and head off to Felicite Island in the Seychelles.

The Six Senses Zil Pasyon resort is set amid dramatic boulders with pockets of powdery beaches and is accessible by private helicopter or yacht from Mahe International Airport.

This is barefoot living at its most luxurious. Choose between 28 one- and two-bedroom pool villas, secluded amongst the tropical landscape and with sweeping ocean views from private decks and pools.

Included in the package is a choice of villas and residences (which are assigned prior to arrival), all daily meals which are tailored to the group and full access to all resort facilities.

Six Senses Zil Pasyon Private Island Experience costs from €330,000 for a week-long stay.

FIJI

Adjust to the 'new normal' with a secluded holiday at Kokomo Private Island Fiji. Pick-up a private flight (Fiji is currently open to visitors arriving by private jet and the resort has its own private hangar at Nadi Airport) and enjoy this 140-acre paradise surrounded by the Great Astrolabe Reef.

Take advantage of five brand new luxury residences tucked away amid the lush landscape; the three- to six-bedroom, private pool villas boast some of the island's best views.

Keep yourselves busy with shark diving, manta ray swims, waterfall hikes and sunset fishing trips.

Feast on freshly caught-to-order seafood and fruit and veggies from the five-and-a-half acre farm. Kokomo also boasts a vanilla plantation, bee hives and free-range chickens.

And at the end of a busy day, bliss-out at Yaukuve Spa Sanctuary, Fiji's largest spa.

The buyout costs from US$65,000 per night.

MALDIVES

LUX North Male Atoll Resort & Villas is inviting guests to 'buy-out' its six-hectare desert island.

You and your nearest and dearest will have the run of 67 one- and two-bedroom beach and overwater villas, plus two, three-bedroom retreats on the beach with a private dock.

Surf season is underway and - naturally - the resort has its own surf spot, The LUX

Break, which is a speedy five-minute jet-ski ride away.

The Island Buy-Out package includes return speed boat transfers with Male International Airport and all meals at the resort's three restaurants. Prices start at US$180,000 per night for a minimum three-night stay and the offer runs until October 31, 2020.

MALDIVES

Immerse yourself in the complete castaway island experience with this limited-time Island Buyout Offer from Soneva Fushi.

The resort operates as usual but without the stress that restaurants or experiences might be booked out before you get there.

Enjoy any of the one- to nine-bedroom villas with as many friends and family as you like.

Cycle trails through the island jungle, lay back on a beach or sandbank while the kids run wild, watch your favourite films at Cinema Paradiso and don't forget cocktails at sunset after yet another socially distanced day.

Soneva Fushi's Island Buyout Offer is open until September 30, 2020, and costs from US$100,000 per night. This price does not include transfers, meals or excursions. 🌐
