So you're dreaming of total peace and seclusion in the lap of luxury? There's an exclusive private island in Fiji just for you. Start planning your escape now and you'll be ready to go once international travel resumes.

Kokomo Private Island Fiji

Gather the family or whisk your special someone away on the ultimate bucket-list escape at this jewel in the Kadavu Island chain south of Viti Levu. Accessed by its private seaplane or helicopter, Kokomo represents the epitome of barefoot luxury; a paradise of 26 villas set against a backdrop of pristine rainforest and the spectacular Great Astrolabe Reef. Snorkel with majestic manta rays, marvel at the kaleidoscopic coral or simply laze about on a pontoon over the warm turquoise waters while the young ones enjoy the kids' club. Organic island-grown produce and locally caught seafood is celebrated on the menus at the island's three dining venues. Don't miss chef Shaun Thomson's signatures, like freshwater prawn with citrus butter and Kokomo herbs, grilled in the Josper oven at the Beach Shack.
